

Please do not allow these business to keep calling and ruining quality family time in the evenings. The world moves by so fast everyone is running all day long trying to get their tasks completed before the sun goes down. We are bombarded by advertising all day, everywhere we go (bus driving by, peoples vehicles, the adds on TV, Billboards, etc) do we really need to be bothered in the security of are homes?